

Under no circumstances should we allow greater conglomeration of media ownership by fewer entities. Do not allow individuals companies to own more media outlets, lessening the points of view we are exposed to.